Dear Joshua:

Congratulations! I am pleased to offer you admission to the University of Maryland for the Fall 2014 semester. You were selected from a highly talented group of applicants. During our review, we were impressed with your academic achievements, talents and experiences. Your performance and commitments are of exceptional quality and you should take great pride in all you have accomplished.

At the University of Maryland, you will join a community of scholars and leaders---students, faculty, and alumni whose successes in the state and around the globe have had profound effects on our world. We are confident you will contribute to the legacy of innovation and leadership that has defined Maryland as a premier research institution, renowned for its academic reputation. Our small, distinctive learning communities with the enrichment experiences in and out of the classroom provide an environment of intellectual challenge and exploration. The university's proximity to Washington, D.C. offers an unbeatable location for participation in internships, research, government events, cultural programs and entrance into the global marketplace.

During the next few months, our faculty, staff and students will connect with you to share more about the extraordinary opportunities available on our campus and beyond. We invite you to engage with our vibrant community during one of our Admitted Student Open Houses.

I hope you decide to join the University of Maryland family. Please find your Academic Major and Residency Classification below. Please respond here to your offer of admission as soon as possible but no later than May 1, 2014.

I look forward to welcoming you to the University of Maryland class of 2018!

Sincerely,
